puppeteer-practice

This repository consists of a Web Scraping and automated testing practice using the Puppeteer library. Testing is performed to navigate, extract information, and interact with the elements of a webpage's DOM, define wait times for navigation, and perform tests using Hooks to improve performance. Finally, web scraping is performed to obtain and return information through images and documents in pdf format.

Use

```
npm install
```

Later

```
npm start
```